a.) Main goal of paper: The purpose of my thesis is to give detailed information about the state of refugees in Hungary and also examine their social acceptance and to show the lesser-known fact about them to the outsiders, and also to draw attention the matters of the case.

b.) Content of paper:

I present how many refugees arrive in Hungary, and what are the main nationalities of them. My paper also intends to give information about how Hungarian people accept these people, and how they are able to adopt them. Finally, I show how the refugee camps operate in Hungary, and in what circumstances they live.

c.) Achieved results:

During my research I faced the difficult situation of the refugees. This is a real problem in Hungary nowadays, but unfortunately, it gets way too low attention. My hypothesis was proved, that the Hungarians have a rejecting approach towards the refugees.
